

Live with a friendly & social housemate

in Carrum Downs, VIC

Seeking SIL housemate to share with one male

Meet our housemate:

This 36 year old man is friendly, chatty and has a good sense of humour. He enjoys gaming, cars, music and watching movies.

He communicates verbally and enjoys sharing activities with others, while also valuing time to himself. He would enjoy living with someone who could share a meal, have a laugh, shoot some hoops or head out for a trip to Bunnings.

He has a diagnosis of left sided hemiplegia (CP), Moderate ID, ADHD and behavioural issues, and would suit a cooperative shared living environment where both housemates can build a positive routine together.

Our housemate is looking to welcome someone who is:

Comfortable communicating verbally and spending time together

Happy sharing meals, conversation and a laugh

Independent and comfortable spending time on their own

Interested in getting out into the community

Support Needs: Supported Independent Living
